

EXECUTION.

ROBERT FOGLER HANGED AT WASHINGTON, PA., YESTERDAY.

HORRID BLUNDERING OF THE EXECUTIONER—CONFUSION OF THE CULPRIT, ETC.

WASHINGTON, Washington county, Pa., May 15.—Robert Fogler, executed to-day, in the first execution since the hanging of James Montgomery...

THE CRIME. Fogler and his confederate murdered an old man named Dinmore, in December last. He was arrested the following day by Sheriff Smith...

THE MOBILE RIOT. He concludes by saying that he made the confession voluntarily, not that he anticipated any arrest and confinement in prison.

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS OF THE ATTACK ON JUDGE KELLEY. FOUR PERSONS KILLED AND FIFTEEN TO TWENTY WOUNDED—THE LEADER OF THE MOB ARRESTED, ETC.

MOBILE, Ala., May 15.—I have learned further particulars of the fatal affray of last night. As the firing was evidently too long, and from fifteen to twenty wounded.

APPEARANCE ON THE SCAFFOLD. At thirty minutes past 1 o'clock the prisoner made his appearance in company with the Sheriff and an attendant.

HIS LAST WAYER. At the conclusion of the prayer the prisoner stepped to the front of the platform, with a statement in his hand, which he said contained a full confession of his awful guilt and crime.

SUFFRAGE QUESTION IN KANSAS. THE NEGROES OPPOSED TO FEMALE SUFFRAGE—APPEAL OF MRS. STANTON AND ANTHONY. LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, May 15.—The Republican State Central Committee met at Topeka to-day for the purpose of arranging for the canvass of the State on the question of impartial suffrage.

THE FALL—A SCENE OF HORROR. In an instant the trap fell, and the prisoner was suspended, with his feet touching the ground. A cheer of horror ran through the crowd.

THE CONFESSION REFERRED TO BY FOGLER was handed to your correspondent. It was a lengthy document, of some thirty-two closely written pages, and a literary production that would do credit to anything that has emanated from the galleys lately.

MONTGOMERY IMPLICATED. The Dinmore robbery was first proposed to him by James Montgomery. He told me one evening, along with a certain Mr. Dinmore, that he had a certain Mr. Dinmore that was a very wealthy man, and who was said to be very wealthy.

JEFF DAVIS.

HIS ARRIVAL IN NEW YORK.

The departure of Jefferson Davis from Richmond in the steamship Niagara, on Tuesday night last, created considerable interest in the public mind, and a desire on the part of many to secure a glimpse of the great statesman who figured so notoriously in the late rebellion in the cause of treason, and whose fortunes, after two years of imprisonment at Fortress Monroe, resulted in a temporary release in terms so significant as to make the presumption natural that his trial before the court at Richmond will "end in smoke."

At ten minutes before 12 o'clock last night the boat landed at the pier, and save a few men, no one was in attendance to meet the visitor. A delay ensued before the passengers began to move out on the pier. A squad of policemen were in attendance to preserve order.

At 12 o'clock Mr. Davis made his appearance, walking out on the plank from the boat with a heavy overcoat loosely thrown over him. In countenance he appeared thin and pale, but was characterized by the same look of firm determination and the vigor of judgment for which he has always been remarkable.

He was accompanied by his brother, General Joseph Davis, of Mississippi, late of the Confederate States army, and by Miss Howell, and Dr. Craven. Dr. Craven's son, and Frank Pearson, of Newark, who also came with the party, entered the boat, and after some little delay were driven to the New York Hotel.

On visiting the scene this morning I discovered how we occupied the stand escaped to the rear of the building, and as the brick work of the Espinasse. Five or six balls struck the front of the building to the right and left of the building, but a few feet wide of the mark.

SECOND EDITION VIRGINIA.

An Enthusiastic Republican Meeting at Hampton, Virginia—Harmonious Action—A White President and a Colored Secretary—Encouraging Prospects of the Party—A Revival of Trade.

PORTSMOUTH, May 14.—A large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held in Hampton last night, at which over 1000 colored people, and many of the principal residents of the town, were present, and received the addresses of both white and colored speakers with cheers and applause.

THE REV. MR. HENSON, Pastor of the Catharine Street Church, Norfolk, opened the meeting by a religious and philosophical discourse upon the slave question, the degraded condition in which it has left the negroes of the South, and showing the great importance of moral and mental improvement as a means of lifting them up to the position of freemen.

MR. CHARLES H. PORTER, of Norfolk, followed him in a long and able speech, in which he advocated the principles of the Republican party, as containing the only acceptable truths by which the colored men of the State could ever hope to redeem themselves from the condition in which they now are, and advised an unswerving support from the people of Hampton, to assist in carrying the State by a large Republican majority.

HE SPOKE OF THE CONVENTION HELD IN RICHMOND by the Union Republican party, and regarded the platform there adopted, and which has been unqualifiedly approved by Senator Wilson and other leading Republicans, to be that upon which all the colored voters could unite and fight for the protection of their rights conferred upon them by the Reconstruction bill.

MR. PORTER CONTINUED AT GREAT LENGTH, and the utmost interest was manifested in his remarks. Numerous other speakers addressed the meeting, in a humorous and instructive manner, and after taking up the collection, the audience dispersed about midnight, amidst loud cheers for the Republican party.

HAMPTON, where this meeting occurred, is a growing little village of much importance, and with the same rate of increasing wealth and prosperity which has marked its progress during the last four years, ensuing years will place it in no inconsiderable position in this vicinity.
